Rigidisc Media Australia

Rigidisc drives your message along the streets and displays corporate logos and/or messages on wheels of company vehicles for self-advertising purposes. With Rigidiscs fitted to your fleet of vehicles your message will be a permanent focus of attention by the general public and will be seen and remembered by thousands of potential customers each year. This will cost you far less than traditional advertising media. Advertisements or logos can be digitally printed onto circular stickers and stuck on the Rigidisc faceplate which means that its design can quickly be re-adapted to meet individual promotional requirements. Rigidiscs are incredibly eye-catching and a novel advertising medium, easy to mount on most types of wheels (alloy or steel), light weight and have excellent aerodynamic characteristics. 50% Trade.
